

Manager, Student Inform

---

From: Inform

Subject: EM: You're Invited - Talk by Mathilda Shepard - "Roots in the Universe" Tuesday 2-22-22 @ 4:15 pm
Adams Davidson Hall

---

From: Barkley, Paula

Students & Faculty @ CMC ... on behalf of CMC Modern Languages, you are invited to an upcoming talk ...

The Department of Modern Languages and Literatures at Claremont McKenna College is pleased to present

Mathilda Shepard

Doctoral candidate at the University of Virginia and Candidate for the position of Assistant Professor of Spanish

"Roots in the Universe": Life, Politics, and the Dialects of Desarraigo in Afro-Colombian Visual Culture

This talk examines how Afro-Columbian visual artists mobilize the dialectics of des/arraigo (dislocation/rootedness) to represent experiences of forced displacement and forge relations of affinity across diasporic space.

Tuesday, February 22, 2022, at 4:15PM

AD Adams Hall Davidson

*All attendees must always wear an appropriate mask correctly*

