Hi all,

Election Day is right around the corner on November 8th, Next Tuesday! In the homestretch, Every Vote Counts Claremont has put together resources to hopefully make the mail-in voting process more accessible and understandable. Every state has their own rules and deadlines for mail-in voting. To help, we have put together a list of states who require absentee ballots be RECEIVED by Election Day, November 8th, and will not accept a postmark. The attached document has the list of those states and a direct link to check the requirements for mail-in voting in your state. If you are from one of those states, please fill out and mail your ballot as soon as possible to ensure your vote is counted. If you need help researching your ballot, we recommend the non-partisan, third party resources Vote411 or Ballotpedia that have information on the candidates, races and provisions on your ballot. We have also listed states that require notarization or 1-2 witnesses for absentee ballots for you to factor in the time that might take. For many states, a witness just needs to be over 18 and you can ask a friend to be a witness. Lastly, EVC Claremont is offering free stamps for absentee ballots to all 5C students and will be tabling at the Hoch this Wednesday from 5:30 to 7 pm. If you cannot make the event, just let us know and we will deliver a stamp free of charge! This year a third of the Senate, the whole House of Representatives and tons of local leadership are up for election, let's turnout Claremont! For any and all voting help, feel free to swing by our event or DM us @evc_claremont and/or shoot us an email at ClaremontEVC@gmail.com. Hope to see you Wednesday! Your vote is your voice!
