Subject: EM: Follow-up: November 2022 Events @ The Claremont Colleges Library

From: Emily Mason

Hello,

I am reaching out in the hope that you can assist The Claremont Colleges Library in sharing the following November events/exhibits with students, faculty and staff across the 7Cs.

Here is a link to the flyer that summarizes the Library's November events. Additionally, I've included a communications toolkit with various posters, digital signs and social media/email graphics below my signature line that can be used to share these events all at once or one event at a time.

For your reference, here is an overview of our upcoming events:

- November 2, 9, 16 and 30 – Fireside Writing (FOR STUDENTS)
- November 9 – Claremont Discourse presents CMC professor Dr. Esther Chung-Kim for Economics of Faith: Reforming Poverty in Early Modern Europe (FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF & COMMUNITY)
- November 11 & 30 – Scholarly communications workshops on Google Scholar and Scholarship@Claremont (FOR STUDENTS)
- November 14 – Map Monday, online via Zoom (FOR STUDENTS)
- Now through November 30 – Asian Library's Celebrating Filipino American History exhibit (FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF & COMMUNITY)
- Beginning November 16 – Upcoming Special Collections & Archives exhibit highlighting the life and work of Barbara Drake, Gabrieleño/Tongva Elder and educator (FOR STUDENTS, FACULTY, STAFF & COMMUNITY)

We'd truly appreciate you sharing this information through your various communication channels. Please feel free to contact me with questions, and many thanks in advance for your help with getting the word out!
