Dear TCC Community!

The Holmes Performing Arts Fund committee of The Claremont Colleges Services (TCCS) is calling for applications to receive funding from The Marian and Charles Holmes Performing Arts Fund for the 2023-2024 academic year.

The funds are intended “to assure the production and presentation of new or unusual performance in drama, music or dance which would not otherwise be economically feasible.”

Applications will consist of written proposals describing the event and providing detailed information regarding event planning and budgeting and also include

- Collaboration - Describe how the proposed event utilizes collaboration between planning groups. Collaboration is encouraged between groups within a college, across colleges, with the general public and/or with additional external groups.
- Relevance - Describe how the proposed event is topically relevant to the missions of The Claremont Colleges and/or to issues of importance to TCC’s community.
- Diversity/Inclusion - Describe how the proposed event reflects TCC’s values of diversity and inclusion. This section should address issues such as access, representation and/or accessibility in planning and/or implementation.

Applications are due on or before April 17, 2023, 5:00pm. Applicants will be notified of decisions by April 28, 2023.

The application can be found on TCCS’s website at <https://services.claremont.edu/holmes-endowment/>
