Subject: EM: Check out the Harvey Mudd Makerspace

From: Kim Neal

Hi everyone,

Do you like to create art, build or make things? If the answer is yes, make sure to check out the Harvey Mudd Makerspace, located on the ground floor of the McGregor Computer Science Center on the corner of Platt and Dartmouth! The Makerspace is a great resource that is open to all 7C students. We have a variety of different resources such as sewing machines, 3D printers, laser cutters, embroidery machines, welding equipment, an AV studio, and so much more! Make sure to join our email list and follow our Instagram @hmcmakerspace to receive information about weekly workshops and events. You can also view our workshop calendar (updated weekly) here.

The Makerspace is open to 7C students, faculty, and staff 24/7, but has stewards to help you with your projects from:

- 1-10PM Monday-Thursday
- 1-7PM Friday and Saturday
- 1-9PM Sunday

While stewards are on duty, you can check out tools/equipment and ask them for assistance. They can also teach you how to use different tools and machines during shift hours.

MAKER SPACE

At the makerspace you have access to tools, resources, space and storage to work on a variety of extracurricular projects, from electronics to sewing or artistic endeavors. This student-run facility is open to students, faculty and staff from The Claremont Colleges.
