

Tkach, Colleen

From: Inform

Subject: EM: Monday, Oct 23, 2023 - Mapping Mass Incarceration - Scripps College @ The Motley Coffee House

From: Rebecca Ballinger

5C PRISON ABOLITION COLLECTIVE PRESENTS

MAPPING MASS INCARCERATION

Monday, October 23, 2023

7pm at The Motley Coffee House

MARIAH TSO

Mariah Tso is a Diné Cartographer and GIS Specialist for UCLA's Ralph J. Bunche Center for African American Studies.

Mariah graduated from Scripps College in 2014 with a B.A. in Environment, Economics, and Politics and a M.S. from Redlands University in Geographic Information Systems. She primarily works as a member of the Million Dollar Hoods, a university-based and community-driven research project mapping and documenting the human and fiscal costs of mass incarceration in Los Angeles situated within the large project of ending mass incarceration.

Sponsored by the Scripps Dean of Faculty Clark Lecture Fund and The Humanities Institute

FMI: tkim@scrippscollege.edu