THIS WEEK AT KECK SCIENCE

This is our weekly email to all students at our colleges (CMC, Pitzer, and Scripps) with information about Events, News, and Opportunities at Keck Science Department! We hope this increases access to opportunities and helps build community for students, faculty, and staff of the Keck Science Department. In addition to this weekly email, we also have created a website detailing research at Keck and available student opportunities: sites.google.com/view/research-at-keck/

All community members (including student organizations) are welcome to submit an item for this weekly email to our form: <https://forms.gle/KxWDCnPoUJMotTEN8>.

THIS WEEK'S EVENTS

2/13: 5C Chemistry Seminar. Our next 5C Chemistry Seminar will take place on Tuesday, February 13 from 11-12 in Seaver Auditorium on the Pomona campus. Our speaker will be Jaimie Stewart from UCLA. Prof. Stewart's title is "Harnessing the molecular code of RNA for structure, function, and applications", and you can find more information about the work done in the Stewart lab at the following linkhttps://www.thestewartlab.com. Email Prof. Caulkins for more information: bcaulkins@scrippscollege.edu.

2/13: Neuroscience Speaker - Dr. Anubhuti Goel (Feb 13 @ 4:30 in Burns). Dr. Goel (UC Riverside) will give a talk entitled "Neural mechanisms of overcoming distractors." This research focuses on the excitatory and inhibitory dynamics that allow neural circuits to discriminate between sensory stimuli and ignore distractions in a goal driven task. Email Prof Tom Borowski for more information: thomas_borowski@pitzer.edu

2/23: Keck Student Research Panel (DATE/TIME Change). Keck DEI Interns are hosting a student research panel on Friday, 2/23 from 2-3pm in Burns Lecture Hall. Learn more about student experiences in Keck research from various disciplines and connect with other Keck students! Pizza provided! RSVP here. Contact kecksciencedei@gmail.com for more info.

THIS WEEK'S OPPORTUNITIES

CLAREMONT MEDICAL BRIGADE: Pre-Med Abroad Volunteering Opportunity. Global Medical Brigades unites volunteers to address healthcare disparities in underserved areas worldwide, with an upcoming clinic in Panama from August 10–17, 2024. This initiative offers pre-med students hands-on experience by shadowing doctors, assisting in pharmacies, and contributing to lasting public health impact. Join as a volunteer and make a difference! For more information, contact nespinoz@students.pitzer.edu
