

From: Inform
Subject: EM: Brazil/Hip-Hop A Mixtape Thursday, April 11, 2024

---

From: Mosqueda, Maria

On behalf of Professor Valencia:

BRAZIL/HIP-HOP A MIXTAPE

A conversation between Charlie Hankin and Norman Valencia

In this event, we will discuss a brief history of Brazilian Hip-Hop, its main influences, and some of its great artists. We will also discuss key concepts for the genre, including periferia, issues of race, class, and gender, and the originality of its cultural impact, from break dance and graffiti to political activism throughout the nation.

Charlie Hankin is the author of Break and Flow. Hip-Hop Poetics in the Americas. He is a Visiting Assistant Professor of Spanish and Portuguese at Pitzer College.

Norman Valencia is an Associate Professor of Spanish and Portuguese at Claremont McKenna College.

Thursday, April 11

5:00-6:30 p.m.

Adams Hall,

Davidson

CMC

Açaí bowls and other
Brazilian treats will be served.

FOR MORE INFORMATION
CONTACT:
PROFESSOR NORMAN
VALENCIA
nvalencia@cmc.edu