We're excited to announce that Ven. Pomnyun Sunim from South Korea will be hosting a Q&A event, Casual Conversation with a Zen Master, at CMC on September 20 at 7 pm.

Ven. Pomnyun Sunim, a humanitarian aid expert, peace activist, and environmentalist, has been engaged in dialogue with the public for decades sharing the Dharma with people from various religious and cultural backgrounds. His unique approach to tackling life's challenges, grounded in the original teachings of the Buddha, offers clear and easily accessible insights. Through his guidance, many have found immediate peace of mind and the confidence to face life's challenges without despair or stress.

Save the date and register today! The event is free and open to everyone. Given the limited seating available, we highly recommend that you register in advance via link below to secure your spot.
