From: Rebecca Ballinger

Hello,

Please join us for the screening of the first* zombie movie that was made in France, The Grapes of Death, on October 29 at 7PM in SC. Vita 100. The movie will be in French with English subtitles. There will be organic popcorn and grapes from Teresa Lloro's farm (whose dad used to be a gardener at Scripps). The movie is about wine-making and pesticides and, as you can probably tell from the flyer, it's not your traditional zombie movie. All the more reason to come!
