Merit or Mistake: Standardized Testing Requirements in College Admissions

Join us for a Salon and dinner with Eddie Comeaux and Mary Churchill

Join us for a discussion on the future of standardized testing and its impact on higher education.

COVID-19 disrupted testing requirements, and debates continue over their reinstatement. Meanwhile, the Supreme Court's decision on affirmative action has raised key questions: How do we balance merit, equity, and equality? If not test scores, what metrics should colleges use?

The Open Academy welcomes Professor Eddie Comeaux (UC Riverside) and Dr. Mary L. Churchill (Boston University) to explore these critical issues.
