

Tkach, Colleen

From: Inform
Subject: EM: From Lived Experience to Leadership: Ath Dinner | Tuesday, Feb. 3rd

From: The.Open.Academy <The.Open.Academy@ClaremontMcKenna.edu>

The Open Academy and the Athenaeum will welcome bestselling author and activist Michael Patrick MacDonald on Tuesday, February 3, for an evening on how personal narrative can shape leadership and social change.

RSVP <https://www.cmc.edu/athenaeum/events/20260203> to join the Athenaeum dinner!

THE REST OF THE STORY: TRANSFORMING TRAUMA TO VOICE, AGENCY, AND LEADERSHIP
MICHAEL PATRICK MACDONALD

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 2026
5:30-8:00 PM

Join us with Michael Patrick MacDonald, New York Times bestselling author of All Souls and Easter Rising and professor of practice, as he explores how storytelling transforms trauma into voice, leadership, and collective healing. He is a professor of restorative and transformative justice at Harvard and Northeastern University.

This Athenaeum presentation is co-sponsored by the Open Academy at CMC.

Athenaeum, Claremont McKenna College

Register on the Ath website:

