Ibn Sīnā (Avicenna) on God
April 3 @ 10 am on Zoom

This talk will look at Ibn Sīnā and his proof for God as the Necessary Existent and philosophical problems that are implied by this way of thinking about God, in particular, that God must create the world necessarily and that He cannot know everything about the created world, because to do that He would have to change. The talk will conclude by reflecting on the relationship between reason and revelation in approaching God within philosophy in an Islamic context.
