Subject: EM: The Gould Center's Humanities Passion Project Applications Due Wednesday, November 18th at 5PM
Date: Tuesday, November 10, 2026 at 5:00:12 PM Central Standard Time
From: Inform
Attachments: image.png, Passion Project Flyer.png

From: The Gould Center

Dear CMC students,

Interested in pursuing a humanities-related passion? The Gould Center for Humanistic Studies is happy to announce funding for humanistically-oriented Passion Projects over the upcoming winter break. Gould-sponsored Passion Projects are short-term independent projects of a scope that can be completed over the break and result in humanistic deliverables such as academic or reflection papers, blog posts, e-zines, short films, photography exhibits, art pieces, and more. Participating students receive a fellowship award of $800 upon completion of the project. Open to CMC students of all class years. Students must be enrolled at CMC for the spring semester.

Questions? Please contact Professor Paul Gaffney at pgaffney@cmc.edu.

For application help, join Professor Paul Gaffney for open office hours at the Gould Center in Kravis Lower Court:

- Wednesday, November 11th from 4:00-5:00pm
- Thursday, November 12th from 12:00-1:00pm

For more information and how to apply, click here. We look forward to reading through your applications!

26 27 Winter Passion Projects

Have an idea for a humanistic project?
The Gould Passion Projects offer CMC students a chance to explore a humanistic inquiry and produce a deliverable output by the end of winter break.

Application Deadline:
5 PM on Wednesday, November 18

- Students completing Gould Passion Projects will receive fellowship awards of $800.
- This initiative is open to CMC students of all class years.
- Questions? Contact Professor Paul Gaffney at pgaffney@cmc.edu.

Learn More!

Information Session:
Monday, November 9th from 12:20-1:00pm @ the Gould Center in Kravis Lower Court

All the best,

The Gould Center Staff

****

Connect with us!
https://www.cmc.edu/gould/
https://www.instagram.com/gouldcmc/
https://www.linkedin.com/company/gouldcenter/
https://www.facebook.com/Gould.Center/