Fall 2023 Sontag Center ==Course Activity Grant== Application Form

Please answer the following questions so that we may evaluate your proposal for a Sontag Center ==course activity grant==. We recommend limiting your proposal to two pages, excluding the top section. If you have any questions about how to apply, please contact a member of our leadership team. Proposals are due ==Friday,March 24, 2023.==

Name(s) with email addresses:

College(s):

Department(s):

Course Name(s) and Number(s):

Course Description(s):

1. Describe how you will use support (including money, space, and/or staff time) from the Sontag Center to significantly enhance elements of your course:

2. How will you navigate between the real and the abstract, and between understanding and making with your students?

3. Describe how the course element(s) will support the core principles and criteria of the Sontag Center grant program:
   a) Features experiential components of creating and making
   b) Nurtures connections between colleges and is highly interdisciplinary
   c) Encourages collaboration among students and faculty
   d) Presents ambitious and ambiguous challenges
   e) Provides learning experiences not possible in the current course design
   f) Brings in never-before-seen and breathtaking ideas

4. What do you (individually or collectively, if applying with a team) want to learn from trying this approach in your course(s)?

5. Include a preliminary budget for the proposed funds:

6. How will you share with the Sontag Center artifacts and stories that result from receiving these funds? May we display them at the Hive?

7. Let us know of any other funding sources you have or are applying for to support this course or course element: